

Reconciliation House Inc.
 Camp for Children Affected by Incarceration
 July 28-30, 2017
What a difference three days can make

Enter a world of adventure with incredible experiences you'll remember for a lifetime... the twang of the bow string, the splash in the pool, camping under the stars. When you think of camp you're imagining a setting like that of Middle Georgia's Reconciliation House Fun in the Son where youth have the chance to strive and succeed. From a dive in movie, to a concert on the lawn, fishing, sports, bible lessons in nature, school supply give away, and lots of food. Fun in the Son is summer camp at its best!

Since we welcomed our first camper in 2004 the Fun in the Son camp for 12-18 year olds who have a parent incarcerated or recently released has opened a world of possibilities for forgiveness and reconciliation. Our camp enables children affected by incarceration to learn through, discovery and grown through experience. Campers take home increased confidence and leadership abilities, better problem-solving skills, and friendships that last a lifetime.

Through their tent experiences, they gain a sense of community, shared values, contribution, commitment, and compassion. On a hike, they connect with the natural world in which they live, without the influence of computers, television, cell phones and other electronic devices. They experience growth by taking healthy risks and stepping outside their comfort zones. They build character, become more competent and caring. They learn to resolve conflicts, value diversity, and share in the success of the group. Fun in the Son becomes the foundation on which courage, self-respect, cooperation and leadership are built.
